

INVITATION TO
AFTERNOON EVENT

ISPE NORDIC CV CoP
Sampling and Analytical Methods

1 November 2018 at 14:00-17:00
Andreasen & Elmggaard A/S, Generatorvej 8C, 2860 Søborg

Event description: The Cleaning Validation CoP would like to invite you to an afternoon event with the topic of Sampling and Analytical Methods for Demonstration of Cleanliness of Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Equipment. Appropriate selection of sampling and analytical methods are prerequisites for reliable demonstration of cleanliness of process equipment. At this event pros and cons of different analytical methods for detection of product residues will be discussed. Techniques for identification of unknown impurities are also in scope. Ensuring correct sampling via proper training of personnel is another important issue, which will be addressed.

Who should attend: In general people working with pharmaceutical cleaning and cleaning validation, such as Process Engineers, Quality Engineers, Quality Control, Quality Assurance and Project Managers.

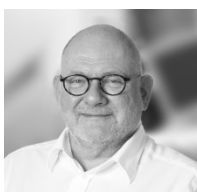

Participation fee: Free*
